

Designing Your Personal Values, Vision & Daily Mission Worksheet

You are a valuable asset to the veterinary team. Each member brings a kaleidoscope of color, experience and expertise to the table. Together you make up a unique team, offering extraordinary care to pets and pet parents.

When you are ready to begin the exercise, find a quiet, undisturbed place, then fill out your Values, Vision & Daily Mission worksheet.

As you begin the creative exercise, allow your thoughts and suggestions to flow, without boundaries. Allow for real brainstorming to occur, because when we express ourselves, authentically, we can create a dynamic Veterinary Team that serves the community in a purposeful way. Be BOLD, Be BRIGHT, Be COURAGEOUS in writing your thoughts.

Personal Values

- Values: Beliefs we hold dear to us, allowing us to find direction and drawing to us others with similar values. When we know what we cherish, and identify aptitudes and attitudes, we draw more of that to us.
- Example, Rebecca's Values: Relationships, creativity, problem solving, sustainability & COURAGE

Consider what you believe about being a team member and serving pets and pet owners. An example may be, you believe in providing TLC to every pet that walks in the door. Another example, I believe each day it is my responsibility to give it my best. I believe in trustworthiness.

Answer these questions concerning your personal values:

In regards to my work day and being a team member, I believe:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

In regards to serving pets, I believe:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

In regards to serving pet parents (clients), I believe:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

Personal Vision

- Vision: On the lofty side of the BIG IDEA, free of boundaries (ALL BOUNDARIES) and judgments (ALL JUDGMENTS), what I want to BE / DO that perpetuates my passion.
- Example, Rebecca's Vision: Be a physically fit, spiritually hip granny with time and resources for friends, family and grandchildren. I passionately lead by example while assisting others to find their "groove" and fulfill their personal goals and aspirations.

Answer these questions concerning your personal vision of your career:

Without boundaries, in regards to your work day, what do you envision yourself doing in three years in your career?

Without boundaries, in regards to serving pets within your veterinary hospital, how would you see yourself serving pets in the near future?

Without boundaries, in regards to serving pet parents, how do you see yourself offering extraordinary care to clients in three years?

Personal Mission

- Mission: What I do on a daily basis that brings me joy, abundance, resources, financial sustainability, and connection to the people who I most align with. DOING & BEING what makes me FEEL GOOD!
- Example, Rebecca's Daily Mission: Build masterful, passionate veterinary teams and coach individuals to offer services that are best for the pet, pet owner, veterinary team and hospital.

Answer these questions concerning your personal mission for your career:

On a daily basis, what is the best part of your day?

On a daily basis, how do you offer the best care possible to the pets you serve?

On a daily basis, what brings you greatest joy while working at your veterinary hospital?

What else supports you in your career?

THANK YOU for participating! THINKING BIG and in a CREATIVE manner will serve you and your veterinary team, as a whole.

Be ready to share your personal values, vision and mission with your manager and/or team as a way to advance your professional career and design aligned statements for your veterinary hospital.

Yours in Veterinary Team Development,
Rebecca Rose, CVT
CATALYST Veterinary Practice Consultants